

"International Dialogue on Underwater Munitions (IDUM) is proud to put forward their Voluntary Commitment in support of the United Nations SDG 14"

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOAL 14

INTERNATIONAL DIALOGUE ON UNDERWATER MUNITIONS (IDUM)

A Networking Event on Oceans Science & Technology bringing together Industry, Institutes, Investors & Stakeholders to Develop Partnerships to Support UN SDG14

11AM - 9PM, 30 May & 31 May 9AM - 4PM, Membertou Trade & Convention Centre,
Registration opens 7 May at www.underwatermunitions.org info@idum.org

Keynote Speakers

Fabien Cousteau, Aquanaut, Oceanographic Explorer, Environmental Advocate, Founder of the Ocean Learning Center & first grandson explorer Jacques Cousteau

Dr. James Porter, University of Georgia Meigs Professor of Ecology, Emeritus Odum School of Ecology, Winner of 2018 Peabody Award for documentary "Chasing Coral" on the relationship between corals & climate change

Chris Walsh, pilot, sailor and deep-sea explorer will speak on Pentarius Deep Sub Manned Project and on potential collaboration on technology for X-Prize

Terrance P Long, Chairman, IDUM, featured - best international documentaries, "Deadly Depths" German Green Screen Film Fest 2015, & a Blue Ocean Finalist, & "Foot Prints of War", for Environmental Excellences & Special Editor Marine Technology Society Journal

First Nations Elder Albert Marshall will present "Two Eyes Seeing" finding a balance with Mother Earth and other speakers.

